“ Dwayne, so sorry I could not attend the viewing for your dear father. You know god has taken him in now to be his angel overlooking you, and your mom and family. Just know he will suffer no more, and is in eternal peace. Although I did not know your dad, I m sure alot of his qualities came through to you. God bless you and your family. I will continue to add you in my prayers daily. Pam J.

“ Aunt Lydia & Todd...my deepest sympathy to you both. As I hated to hear of Uncle Booker's passing I was relieved to know that his suffering was over. He has gone for his reward. I know this is a difficult time for you both but I ask as I know he would want that you continue to LIVE your lives and remember him fondly not grieving.An appointment that we all must keep and can not postpone. Live on and know that you did all that was humanly possible to comfort him as he waited his transition. God bless you both and know that as we are unable to be there physically we are there in spirit. Love you...Mariea
