

Anna Mae Williams

March 13, 1964 - April 22, 2024

Anna Mae Williams, affectionately known as Mae Mae was born in Itta Bena, Mississippi on March 13, 1964 to Samuel Johnson and Magnolia Williams.

Anna confessed Christ at an early age and received Him as her Lord and Savior. She loved to sing songs of praise and prayer was a part of her daily routine.

Anna worked various jobs. She was committed to Food Service for more than forty years for various companies. She was well-known in several communities as the “Ice Cream Truck Lady”. Anna drove the Ice Cream truck every summer for over twenty years. She also volunteered for 15 years campaigning for the Democratic Party.

Anna was a loving and caring person and would do anything that should could for even a stranger. She was fun, outgoing and knew how to spark any atmosphere that she was in. She was truly the life of the party. Her favorite hobby was playing bingo. She loved people, especially her family and had a nick name for most of her nieces and nephews.

Anna was preceded in death by her parents, Magnolia Williams and Samuel Johnson; sisters: Susie Mae Hodges and Alice Mae Williams, Emma Johnson; brothers: Clarence “Boolow” Williams, Emmit Self, and Casey Payne, grandson: Pattron Williams.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her favorite son: Gregory Pattron Williams, granddaughters: Taniya Williams, Aaliyah Thurmond, Mijah Carver, and Kalia Williams, Nakila Cheeks, Breaunta Cheeks, and Tanajah Betts; grandson: Gregory Thurmond; 3 great-grandchildren: brothers: Eddie "Chuck" Williams and Nathaniel (Melissa) Williams, sisters: Betty (Jesse) Tucker and Rita Williams and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives, and special friends. She will be deeply missed.
