

Anthony "DJ Touch" Laray Harvill Sr.

July 1, 1967 - March 9, 2024

Anthony "D.J. Touch" Laray Harvill Sr., beloved husband, father, "Paw-Paw", son and brother, passed away unexpectedly March 9, 2024 at age 56. He was born to Jimmy Harvill and Betty Anderson on July 1, 1967. A lifelong resident of Toledo, he graduated from Edward Drummond Libbey High School. He was an employee of Mobis North America for over 15 yrs.

Tony was well known and will not soon be forgotten for his helping hand. When Tony said, "I've Got You!" It was a fact that he was going to follow through and fulfill the task with excellence. He was dependable and generous. He was a dedicated husband and father who did everything in his power to provide love and nurture for his wife and children.

A music mixologist extraordinaire, he had a deep appreciation for music and loved providing musical entertainment for various events. He shared his passion with family and friends. Tony was the founder of "Glass City Cruisers", Member of "DJ's Most Wanted" and owner of DJ Touch DJ Services. Independent business owners, he and his wife Kellea managed A & K Vill Rental Properties.

Tony loved traveling and date-nights with his wife.

He leaves a legacy of generosity and kindness to the love of his life for seventeen years Kelléa; mother, Betty Anderson; sons, Byron Ramsey, Anthony Harvill Jr. (Ashley), Treyvon Harvill, Darius Beckett and Dominique Beckett; daughter, Melana “RayeRaye” Harvill; five grandchildren, Amaya, Aaliyah, Aaron, Domanazja, Aniya and Amari; two brothers, Malcolm Metcalf (Lisa) and Jamal Anderson; mother-in-law, Ruby Bray; a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives, work family, and DJ family and friends.
