

Barbara A. Nash

November 3, 1947 - August 3, 2023

In loving memory of Barbara Annette Nash

Sunrise November 3, 1947- Sunset August 3, 2023

Barbara was born from the union of Verdis and Inez Nash in Toledo, Ohio. She graduated from Jesup W. Scott High School in 1966 and attended The University of Toledo majoring in business. She was employed as a teller for two banks. She was also employed at the Lucas County Auditor's Office where she was a union steward until her retirement. She will be remembered for her kind heart, loving spirit and many gifts. She was a talented member of the dance group, UMUZI IKAHYA traveling and performing for two years at festivals, fairs, and black history events. She also loved jazz music. She always kept physically fit by running and biking. She participated in marathons supporting breast cancer research and support. She worked with community members honoring her mother at Inez Nash Park.

She was preceded in death by her father Verdis Nash, mother Inez Nash, sisters Sheila Nash, Patricia Robinson (Arney) and Renee Nash.

She is survived by her sister Jacqueline Nash, brothers Felix Nash (Gail), Steven Nash (Linda) and David Nash, niece Alicia Nash, nephews Cheron Robinson (Lanette), Amin McNeil (Shakyla) and Kayshone Nash (Jasmine), great nieces Ashley, Brianna, Kayla, Mariah, Iyanna, Aujane and Lylah, great nephews Kayshone Jr. and Isaac, forever friends Donna Walker, Jarry Shelby, Robbie Tucker, Alberta Hopkins and Ivy Boon.
