“ My Uncle Boy... I don't even know where to begin. I lived in the house with him for 30 years. He was my Granny's little brother. The last of 8 children. He used to babysit me, comb my hair and everything. He would drive me to Lincoln school and pick me up even though the school was down the street on the same side of the street. He even took me to and from High School every day. He loved his Westerns, TV and books. You could always find him tinkering with his car or tailgating somebody on the way to the corner store. He will be so truly missed. I love you Uncle Boy 🕊
