“ To the family of: Betty Ruth Temple I'm so sorry for your lost. I know the bible brings comfort and hope; it always does when we have strength to read it. When Jesus best friend died, “he groaned in spirit and became troubled,” and shortly afterward he “gave way to tears.” John 11:33, 35. The same for us, when someone you love dies, it does not show weakness to cry. When the enemy death strikes, your grief can be great, even though God gives you hope to see, have faith an believe you will see them again, yes just hope in the resurrection. Revelation 21:3, 4. Sincerely, Mrs. S. Brown
