

Calvin Davis

September 25, 1949 - May 23, 2020

Calvin Robert Davis was born in Toledo Ohio on September 25, 1949 to Mary Ardelia and George Davis Jr. Always one to stand on his own two feet, Calvin went on to serve this country at a young age as a soldier in the Navy. Traveling the world only added to an already well rounded man. Coming back, he worked diligently at the Jeep Toledo plant until he retired to be a full time father to his only child. Calvin was always heavily involved in local politics, and was passionate about making Toledo a better place for everyone. He was known for his honesty under any circumstances, reliability and awesome cooking. Calvin was preceded in death by both of his parents and his brother George Davis III. He is survived by brothers Norman Davis Sr., Larry Davis; daughter Taylor Davis; Niece Tracy Davis; Nephews Norman Jerome Davis and Jack Davis; Close Cousins William Smith & Corey Smith and many other close family members and friends.
