

Carrie Galloway

November 22, 2010

Carrie Galloway (Tucker) 92, passed away quietly Monday, November 22, 2010 at Spring Meadow Extended Care facility. She was born in Baton Rouge, Louisiana on June 1, 1918. She later married James E. Tucker, who preceded her in death 1963. Carrie was a strong and caring woman that used the gifts God gave her to the best of her ability. Those who knew her loved her, and always will. She enjoyed traveling, cooking, entertaining, and was very crafty with her hands. Carrie was a lifetime member of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, and worshipped regularly until her health began to fail. Her true passion in life was spending time with her children, and grandchildren. Carrie is survived by her son, James E. Tucker, Riverside, California; daughter, Patricia Ann Tucker; grandchildren, James E. Tucker III, Hashim L. Tucker, Shawn Tucker, Teresa R. Tucker; great-grandchildren, Ashley Tucker and Amber Tucker; Goddaughter, Ayanna A. Floyd of Los Angeles, California, and a host of great nieces, nephews, and friends. Special thanks to Spring Meadow Staff and Nora Floyd her longtime friend and caregiver. Visitation will be held at the Dale-Riggs Funeral Home on Monday, November 29, 2010 from 5-7 p.m., where services will also be held on Tuesday, November 30, 2010 with Wake Services at 11 a.m. and Homegoing Services at 12:00 Noon.
