

Chantell Y. Hennings

January 20, 1967 - November 9, 2025

Chantell Yvonne Hennings, 58, of Toledo, Ohio, formerly of Flint, Michigan, passed away peacefully on Sunday morning, November 9, 2025, at her home.

Chantell was born on January 20, 1967, in Flint, Michigan, to Leo Berry Sr. and Ceanna Berry. She grew up in Flint and attended Flint Central High School, remaining a proud Flint native for most of her life before relocating to Toledo in 2020.

A devoted homemaker, Chantell also enjoyed working small community jobs throughout the years, including driving an ice cream truck and serving as a school crossing guard. No matter what she was doing, Chantell brought warmth, connection, and a joyful spirit everywhere she went.

Family was the center of Chantell's world. She believed deeply in keeping loved ones close and was the heart of family gatherings. She especially loved hosting Thanksgiving, enjoying picnics at the beach, and spending days shopping to find good deals. Her presence brought people together, and her kindness will be remembered by all who knew her.

Chantell leaves behind her five beloved children: Mario X. Travis, Symmeo O. Hennings, twins Sierra S. Hennings and Leone M. Hennings, and Alexandria C. Mills.

She is also survived by her cherished grandchildren: Jezinae Smith, Markez Smith, Malik Smith, Aubryn Smith, Ava Hennings, Mya Hennings, Ceanna Jefferson, and Cameron Perry.

She is survived by her brothers: Tommy Berry, Raynard Berry, Rodney Berry, Rickey Berry, and Troy Berry.

Chantell is preceded in death by her parents Ceanna Berry and Leo Berry Sr., her three children Georgio Smith, Lacey Berry, and Sydney Berry, and her siblings Leo Berry Jr., Clyde Berry, Christopher Berry, and Angela Berry.

Chantell will be remembered for her love, her strength, and the way she built family wherever she went. Her legacy lives on in the children, grandchildren, and loved ones who will forever cherish her memory.
