

Charles walker

September 2, 2007

Charles Morgan Walker, 75, passed away quietly September 2, 2007 at St. Luke's Hospital. Born in Morristown, NJ, he was a member of Third Baptist Church. He was the chairman of the Trustee Board and Housing Committee. He was responsible for many improvement projects within the church, including the kitchen and the roof. He served on the board of the Frank Troy Senior Center and a member of The Citywide Trustee Association.

A man with a fervor for life, he showed great enthusiasm for his many interests. He loved to discuss the issues of the day including politics, finance, the stock market and current affairs. He was a great sports fan and loved University of Michigan sports. Charles loved Third Baptist Church and to be of service to those who needed him in and outside of church.

Charles was a 1989 retiree of Allied Chemical (Plaskon Inc.) after 40 years of service. He also served in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War and was honorably discharged.

He was preceded in death by his parents and leaves to cherish his memory, wife of 51 years, Sallie Walker, two sons Daryl Morgan Walker of San Francisco, CA and Eric Jerome Walker of Seattle, WA, Brother Raymond (Claire) Walker of Morristown, NJ, godchild Elizabeth Clay and other family and friends.
