“ To my family. We will miss the beautiful spirit of “Aunt T”. We were blessed to have her 101 years. She was a vibrant part of all our family gatherings. We grieve but we celebrate her life and home going to God’s Kingdom which is joyful. Be safe and be well family. I love you all and pray for you. Joyce Sheryl Lawler, daughter of Neal and Zenobia Woodard.

Take shots.

*Read
and write votes
for the truth,
carried in a spirit
delivered in Booth-
I hope this November
is sweet like
tea
brewed in the light
of 101 suns,
revolutions
against time,
against lines
drawn and
legislated,
colored and
hung
and alive
in these red
eyes;
products of
kingdoms
plantations
migrations
and marches
survived,
ten decades
of white folks
in white cloaks...*

*Peeled
silver tabs,*

*I read
and write votes,
take shots of
grapefruit juice,
red cans
in bike spokes
spinning
over train tracks
to a glass house
separating commerce
from a black house
you can't leave
without love-
