“ Will truly miss you UNC, you have always been a part of my life, from a small child to adulthood ! I thank you for the long talks, and your ability to problem solve. We made a good team, you were always happy to see me and believe me I listened to your keen suggestions, and enjoyed frying you some chicken, beans and rice, not to mention cucumbers, and tomatoes with vinegar, and you saying, " I know it's some cornbread in here!" You were a good friend to my parents Zach and Cobb, you were always around my family through the rough times, and the beautiful ones. Rest easy, Bink

“ When We Were Young Damon them just moved up from Florida, we stayed in the projects called McClinton nuns homes, we were playing four squares, it was in November and all of a sudden it started snowing, Damon broke out running to the house hollering the sky was falling the sky was falling, a few of us that start calling him Chicken Little!!!! He never seen snow, it was funny, it took us a while to get him to come back outside, that was one funny moment, Damon you truly will be missed your brother Steve Perry
