Donald R. Russell, 56, passed away October 8, 2013, at University of Toledo Medical Center. He was born in Toledo on August 3, 1957, to Georgianna Carr Russell and Paul Ullis, and stepfather, Donald Thomas. Donald was a member of People's Missionary Baptist Church under the covering of Elder Michael Key. Donald attended Macomber Culinary Arts School, graduating from Woodward High School and continued his education at Bowling Green State University. It is through his passion and love for culinary arts that he further pursued a career at Frank Uncles. Shortly after, he accepted a position as a chef at Ricardo's Restaurant in downtown Toledo. He transitioned to the Sylvania Country Club as a chef, where he continued for several years. Later, he was employed in the Dietary Department of

St. Vincent Mercy Medical

Center from June 2005 until his passing. Later, he was employed in the Dietary Department of St. Vincent Mercy Medical Center from June 2005 until his passing.

Donald was a man with a wonderful sense of humor, integrity and honesty. He loved to sit for hours listening to the music of Whitney Houston and watching the Young and Restless. His hobbies also included modern dance, playing the lottery, and watching Family Feud. He had a deep desire to keep the peace and unity in his family. Donald Russell was a great man, loved by many people. He will be missed by us all.
