“ Dorothy was a very special person to the Ezell/Burton family. Dorothy would call and check on the family often. She was happy that she shared birthdays with my mother. Dorothy shared her daughter (Tonya) with the family. Dorothy will be missed. Heaven is her new home. Love and miss you Dorothy.

“ I remember the precious times I sat with her, drinking Pepsi and Sock It To Me cake. I spent many afternoons after work on her front porch. The peace she created for any visitor was priceless. Mom, you're in a better place. Stay put because one day we'll have to catch up on that front porch in heaven. Until we meet again, your memory will continue to live and touch lives everywhere. Love you Mom. You will be truly missed.

“ Dorothy was such a great friend; I always said she was the big sister I never had with all her wisdom and advice on life. She was devoted to her daughter Tonya and so proud of her grandchildren. Dontae who was her protector after she lost her husband and her right arm when she needed anything. Her granddaughters who achieved and succeeded in their chosen profession who were also her pride and joy. Dorothy was excellent in her care of patients at St. V's and always gave 100 percent. She will be sorely missed by those who knew and loved her.

“ On Dorothy your presence on this Earth will truly be missed. I can remember the first day I met you taking you to the store and you asked me what my name was. I simply said Monica and you like no no no. You told me that I needed to stake my claim and from that day 4th I was Mrs Lewis. Though I knew to Stand My Ground you taught me a better way to do it. I love you Aunt Dorothy and you will definitely be missed. Until we meet again rest well. My deepest condolences to the family.

“ I’m going to miss you sooo much granny! I think about you everyday!! I miss your smile and the way you laugh. Most importantly how caring you were to anyone you knew and watching you show love to others is one reason why I continue to be who I am today. I’m going to miss watching your favorite tv shows on the couch with you and talking about how your day went. I know you are watching over the family and I know you are at peace now. I love you forever...until we meet again.

“ Dear Momma, Lord knows, mom you were the best, but the lord whispered, come home my child, and rest. The lord knows, mom I don’t want you to go, but you’ve paid all these earthly dues you owe. At the time of my birth, your eyes lit upon me. You taught me my destiny, was the world to see the best of me. When you left, a part of me left with you, but unlike myself, you’ve had angel wings to lift you. To the far and beyond this hard life of pain, my heart is a cloud, the sorrow is the rain. But you rose to Heaven, and left us behind, now and forever will your essence continue to shine. Dear Momma, I’ll miss you, my guardian, my friend, and prepare for time that we all meet again. I LOVE YOU MOMMA!!
