“ Was sad to hear of Dorothy's passing. Ms. McKinney was foster mother to 2 brothers and I in the late 1980s. I always remembered her to be compassionate, full of energy and always caring- even though we weren't her birth children. Children were one of her ministries and the short time we spent with her aided us in our transition in a difficult system. I just moved back to Toledo and was thinking about her and found this. Rest in peace Dorothy!
