“ Coach Davis was always a huge impact to all the students he encountered. I remember his big heart and sense of humor! His personable ways with his students is one of the things I bring into my own classroom twenty years later. Anyone that met him was blessed.

“ To Mrs. Davis and family... I also met Coach at Super Fitness. My sincere condolences for your loss. He was one of a kind... always smiling, always words of encouragement. He told me about the healing properties of castor oil so now I always have it in the medicine cabinet. He is greatly missed.

“ My heart is aching right now, one of the finest human beings I know has been taken from us to soon. Slim and I coached together for a number of years at Scott and Waite. He was more than a coach, he was a friend. I will truly miss him and his southern drawl. My deepest sympathy to Brenda and his family. I share the tears you shed but I also share the smiles that he will put on your faces when you remember your time with him. May the Good Lord hold you in his hands and give you peace in this time of sorrow. RIP, Slim. Till the time we meet on that great playing in the sky, you will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ My fondest memory of Mr. Davis is a day in high school when my teammates and I met after football practice in the weight room. My teammates and I met to vote on whether to allow a teammate to remain on the team for violating a team rule. Mr. Davis was in the weight room lifting weight. After overhearing us debate, Mr. Davis raked his bench press and abruptly asked us asked why were we debating. He went on to give us a passionate speech on trust and respect for rules. Needless to say, we made to right decision and unanimously voted not to allow the teammate back on the squad. To this day, I never forgot Uncle Sally's posture and speech that day. To my best friend Tyrone Davis and the entire family, our prayers are with you. RIP Uncle Sally.
