“ I am a customer of Charter One. A while ago, Eric helped me with a problem with my checkbook. As he looked at it he noticed that I tithed and this led to a discussion about God, faith and how God provides. I noticed photos of his daughter and he talked about how beautiful and wonderful she is. What a kind and gentle man, and what a beautiful smile. He always smiled and waved at me whenever I came in to the bank. I feel grateful that I was able to meet him, however briefly. I am very saddened by his passing and wish to extend my sympathies and prayers to his family. Donna Martin-Isard

“ I remember the day I first met Eric. I was interviewing him for a job at Charter One Bank. His smile and enthusiasm toward life was contagious. I commented to him that if he had the ability to make our customers feel his warmth and sincerity through his smile he had a long career potential at the bank. He made everyone he came in contact with feel special. He will be missed and was taken from us all too soon.

*So sorry for your loss,
