

George Austin Young Sr.

September 10, 1935 - November 11, 2025

George A. Young Sr., 90 of Toledo, Ohio passed away peacefully in his home, on Tuesday, November 11, 2025 surrounded by his loving family.

George attended Inkster High School, in Inkster, Michigan, where he was a stand out baseball player. After High School he started working at Medusa Portland Cement, working over 40 years as a Supervisor.

He was the greatest husband, the best father and grandfather. He loved listening to music, playing golf, going to baseball and basketball games, and watching old cowboys movies, in the summer he loved sitting outdoors in his back yard enjoying the peace and quite.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Georgia Young, special aunt and uncle Eddie and Mamie Williams, brother James A. Young Sr., sisters Vetta Lino, Delia Jackson, Georgia Reyes, Clarice Odoms, and Loretta Young.

George leaves to cherish his memory, loving wife of 71 years Delores Young, son George A. Young Jr., daughters Yvette Lyons, Patrice Young, Godson Marcus (Tammy) Moran of Pennsylvania, grandchildren Jermain (Tamara) Lyons, and Monique Lyons, great grandchildren Nadia, Rico, Lunden, Diego Lyons, Brieonna Childress, Allasyia (Jake) Lugdtke, great great grandchildren

Avia, Zander, Cal, brother John J. Young Jr., sisters Annie Mosby, Violet Nunley, a host of family and friends.

The Young family wishes to thank Hospice of Northwest Ohio, Mrs. April Childress, nieces Shelia Rouse, Evelyn Mays, Carolyn Stubblefield, Mr. and Mrs. Googins for all your help and kindness.

“ I remember the time spent in the kitchen with Mr. Young, where he generously shared his life wisdom. I cherished our conversations and the laughter we enjoyed together. God has called you home now, saying, "Well done, my good and faithful servant. Welcome home." I will carry the wisdom you imparted close to my heart.

The Young family and my big brother, the Coleman family, extend their gratitude for sharing your father with me.
