“ Thank you to everyone who showed and gave their respects to Gregory. A child of God, a son, brother, father, favorite cousin, grandfather, friend and mentor.

Greg made a friend where ever he worked or went, he was the most laid back & the coolest dude as some of the younger men called him. This was quite the opposite of the menacing nick-name of "GREG the HAMMER" that he gave himself when he wanted to be in the WWF as a teen. As you may know he had a sense of humor that was like none other! In recent years his love of sports turned to fishing, golfing & watching his favorite team The Cleveland Browns.

Greg was a helper. He would help people by fixing on cars & on homes or even just lend an ear when needed & on some occasions he would babysit! Greg also loved to cook & if you were really fortunate, he would make a meal that would knock your socks off or have the grill going & invite you over or even bring a plate of food to you if you couldn't attend.

Life changed for Greg after the passing of his beloved mother Della & he had also gotten gravely ill but the Lord saw fit to let him stay with us a little while longer & in that time he did what his mother always told him, the same thing her mother told her. "Read your Bible."

Greg did just that & often shared scriptures every chance he got on social media. This showed that he had laid the foundation for a stronger relationship with God before he left this earth.

Remember Greg's daughters, grandchildren and siblings and a host of other family & friends loved ones in your prayers.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I kept the faith."

2 Timothy 4:7

“ Bill was around for most of my child hood. He was an awesome God father he was hilarious, always had a smile on his face and was the perfect person to put a smile on someone else's. I always loved when he came around because you never knew what you would get with him ( aside from his viking handshake) he made awesome peach oatmeal and couldn't help but gas face you when he saw you needed a laugh in your day. It's crazy when your young you don't realize how big of a role people play in your life, it's when you get older and you have a family and kids and you find yourself doing things with your family that someone special did with you when you were young. It's funny my kids and wife know of the gas face, peach oatmeal, hog biting corn, fishing just do much awesomeness that I'm so thankful that inherited from him over the years... I love you Bill Bill sand it sucks that your gone 💔
