“ To The Reverend Gregory Meredith family and friends...We will always remember the joy and laughter you brought to so many. You will always be remembered as our "Singing Angel from Calvary"...with your signature songs, "My Soul is Anchored" and "I Can Depend on God". Thanks for the kind words of encouragement and guidance you brought to our children, Matthew & April, and the Calvary Youth & Young Adult & Adult Choirs!!! May the works you've done speak for you!!! Prayers of comfort to your family and friends. Precious Memories...

“ To The Family of Gregory Meredith:

Please accept my sincere condolence on the loss of your beloved Gregory. Although I only was blessed to know him in the last couple of years, I will always cherish his willingness to assist me with songs for Warren Church when I would substitute on occasion as a keyboard musician for the choir. I will miss his beautiful voice, smile and presence on the Sunday morning when we once again, gather as a congregation in song and worship together. My thoughts and prayers are with you and may God bless and keep you within His ever loving arms.

“ Our prayers are with you all during your time of bereavement. May we all find comfort in knowing that Greg has completed his earthly assignment and is now present with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May his anointed voice and his smile that would light up any room be glimmers of hope that remain with us until we see him again. Humbly submitted, Deacon Charlie Johnson and family.

Dear Rev. Gregory Meredith family. You all are in my thoughts and prayers. You were so kind to my family in how you and Frances Ester would pick up my sister Correan Baker from the airport and take her back when she came home. Now you and her are in Heaven with our Lord Savior Jesus Christ. I will see you both after while. Shirley A. Taylor and the Byrd Family

*Sure gonna miss you "CHAMP" I appreciate all that you did for me and Mom my heart is heavy but I know that God needed you more.
Billows may roll
The breakers may dash
I shall not sway because
He holds me fast
So dark is the day
Clouds in the sky
I know that you are alright
Because your with Jesus now, your "SOUL IS ANCHORED"

My deepest sympathy to the family of Gregory Meredith. I worked with Greg at the BP Refinery. He was more than a coworker we were friends. I knew Greg not just at work but I knew him as a Christian. He was just always smiling and would sing a for me when he would come by my office at work. May the Lord give you strength and peace as you go through these last hours seeing him.

May the Lord bring joy to your hearts and turn those sad tears to tears of joy as you remember all the good, fun times you have shared. RIP my Barry White. Greg you will be missed. Norma
