

Gwendolyn Edwards

August 21, 1952 - February 16, 2022

Gwendolyn (Gwen) Edwards was born August 21, 1952, in Toledo, Ohio to Thomas Williams and Marion Williams Powell. She is survived by her sibling Thomas Williams (Sandra). The Angels came down and gave her wings while surrounded with love and family on February 16, 2022.

Gwen graduated from Libbey High School and attended Bowling Green State University. She enjoyed many careers ending with her role as Mail Carrier for the United States Postal Service.

She accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and raised her family as a member of First Church of God and later attended Rance Allen's New Bethel Bountiful Blessings Ministries.

Gwen's family was always her top priority. She carried love, laughter and wisdom everywhere she went. Even when her health was declining, she kept a watchful eye over a host of children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren earning the name "Nana" as a loving term of endearment.

Gwen will be dearly missed by her husband Robert Edwards, four daughters Jacinta (Darryle), Lynn (Dana), Robin and Justice, ten grandchildren Amiri, Allen, Avery, Dana, Jordan, Destiny, Ma'Laya, Faith, Ja'Miyah and Josiah and four great grandchildren A'Darius, Adah, Kailee and Kryee, in addition to many other family and friends.

“Gwen....I have been trying to post this for the last few days. It's really hard because not only were you my cousin, you were my big sis!! We had some wonderful times together. You took me in with a child and I am forever grateful for that!! I'll never forget how excited you were on our Duo call, I know if you could have talked you would have asked me the same question you've always asked "when you comin' home? I sure do wanna see you and the boys" Well I didn't make it home this time but i'm glad we did stop by the last time we were there. I'm gonna miss you and forever love you!!💖 Say hello and give hugs to your mom, Neet and Nita. Goodbye for now.....

“Sorry for your loss. I'm praying for the family. Gwen was my second cousin, Marion, her mom was my 1st cousin. Gwen was a very friendly sweet person. I loved her dearly. We didn't visit much but when we saw each other we pick up where we left off.

“ My sincerest condolences to Gwen's family in her passing -- I often wondered what had happened to Gwen and her brother Tommy -- have not seen either one of them since the middle 70's -- their mother Mrs. Powell used to babysit my son Darian(RIP) and they were such a loving family. I wish the family peace in this time of bereavement and so many precious memories. Ann Snodgrass Hall
