“ Since third grade you and mom Adams have been like second parents to me... Always HAPPY and around you house because you were playing music and singing to each ... I like watching when I came around the way you looked at each other because you were such a lovely couple !!!!! I could and anyone could tell the way you looked at Mrs Adams you loved her And the way she looked at you there were no words needed !!!! And now God has put you back together !!!!! RIH along with your Granddaughter..... I'll miss you Mr Adams , but I will always remember you laughing with me when I visited with Evette.....

“ My sincere condolences to you Evette on the loss of your father, to the rest of Jim's family, and of course to you Jann. Unfortunately, I know all too well what you must be going through, having lost my longtime companion so recently. May you take comfort in beautiful memories and in the unwavering devotion and care you provided Jim; I'm sure it meant the world to him. Val King

“ Ironically my Dad ended up being my 1st love when I was an itty bitty girl and my last love when I became an adult female. After my 2 failed marriages I realized he was the Only man in my life I could trust completely. I cannot express how my world has changed now that I don't have him to confide in. But no matter what, I know he's still with me, watching my back. Advising me, loving me & watching over me. I love you daddy. Have a Great time up there with Mom!!! ❤️❤️❤️

“ It has been a great pleasure having this great human being as a mentor, father figure in our neighborhood and friend to my parents. Thank you sir for your support and directions for the younger generations. You will be greatly remembered by myself and far more for the many lives you touched by your personal sacrifices and ever present desire to help us grow. Bless your soul!
