“ Met jamieson in the University of Toledo Excel group XVIII. He was always a great kind hearted person who could put a smile on anyones face. At the time i didnt know we would end up at the same high school, where are friendship grew even more. From time spent in class to extra school activities like French and Drama club to just hanging out after scholl he was always a cool person to be around. I wish ive seen him more since our high school years ended but ill always remember all the good times we've had.

“ I'm saddened to hear about the passing of Jamieson Williams, a University of Cincinnati E-Media classmate of mine.

This guy was one of the most insightful and entertaining people I've met. I always knew I'd be in for some jokes and hilarious stories when working on group projects together. He was authentic, and told it "like it is." Not someone who put on a front.

I remember my freshman year in 2012 I was hesitant to go to UC's spring concert. That year Big Boi was performing along with a relatively unknown artist at the time named... Kendrick Lamar. I didn't want to oversleep and miss my college radio show the next morning (always the biggest fear of my college life. I know, kinda lame.) I remember him saying, just go. "I've listened to Kendrick, and he's a lot different from other hip-hop artists." Needless to say, I went. He was right! It was one of the best concerts I've ever seen, but I don't know if I would've gone if it weren't for Jamo.

Rest in peace Jamieson. Thank you for being a friend.
