“ Dear West Family; I am so sorry to hear about Jeffery's death. May you have peace and comfort during this sad time. I met Jeffery while visiting Robinett. He was a nice person purely gentleman. I always enjoyed talking with him. He always had some kind and wise words to share. I really appreciated Jeffery because he was definately a people person. May you all remember that the God of all comfort will always be with you to comfort in a way that no human can. The Bible speaks of Him as the God of tender mercies because he cares for us and mercifully take care of all our needs now and in the days to come. much love to your family.
