Surrounded by love, Jessie Mae Dixon, age 85, of Toledo, Ohio, entered into eternal rest peacefully on Sunday, September 28, 2025, at Hospice of Northwest Ohio, with her sister by her side.

Jessie was born on November 14, 1939, in Charleston, South Carolina, to Peter and Lottie Wigfall. Although born in Charleston, she grew up in Toledo and graduated from Libbey High School, Class of 1959.

Jessie's faith was the foundation of her life. Beyond her career, Jessie will be remembered for her generosity, warmth, perseverance, elegance, and the deep love she showed to family and friends. She cherished time with her loved ones and was known for her unwavering faith in the Lord, her perfectly kept landscaping, and her famous Sunday

“ To the family of Mother Jessie Dixon. God Bless you all, I remember so well when I first met Mother at Greater Faith we had some really good times together, she often kept me laughing while in our conversations. I always felt like family with her, Mother would call me on a weekly basis if I had not touched base with her I'm sad to hear about her homegoing but I know we will see each other again. Peace and Blessings be with you. Love Evangelist Kim Creath. Shalom

“ Mr's Dixon was my neighbor and a mother to me. She would call me at times just to talk, we talked a lot and go places at times for entertainment together. When I would remove her snow each year or repair something for her at the house she'd always would try to pay me money. I told her when she cook, I'll work for food or a dinner plate. I'm really going to miss seeing her and her phone calls and especially the water cornbread she'd would make, it was the best.
