“ Joe, I will miss our friendship, working so closely with you on a daily basis. I will remember all the times good and bad with the transmissions at Sharonville. It was always a pleasure working with you. You were always positive no matter how difficult the problem was. You were so respected by anyone who worked with you. I learned so much from you, and I will cherish our friendship. You will be remembered by both Chuck and myself. They always say it is the good ones that go to early, but the Lord must have needed a problem solved and he needed to call you home. I WILL MISS YOU!
