“ Your smile was contagious, it meant your were up to something or getting ready to tell a joke or you were just happy with whomever you were with. I know you are looking down on each one of us with that beautiful smile. You are at peace and can rest easy now. You will forever be in my heart and on my mind. I Love You my Tio Juan

It feels like it yesterday when you came down to Texas for the cajunto festlval and Julia never left your side. It was a pleasure meeting you and enjoyed your company. You will be missed and we know that the Lord had plans for you as to why you have gone to join him in his kingdom. God bless you, we love you and will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
