“ Dear Julies family, Haven't seen her in years but met her in 1982 along with her adopted parents at my uncles pond. She was shy and sort of quiet until she got to know u but we shared many talks sitting on her front porch on E.Broadway talking about her life and my life told her things will always get better we always think the worse when we are young but plenty of time to move ahead, and that she did all though we separated after she was 18 she had to figure out her past and new life ahead of her. Was ruff but she did it and raised 3 kids ain't easy but she did it. The rough time is over the pain is gone, and u will as they say meet again and we all can see her kinkie smile her little giggle, till we meet again LOVE U JULIE. (Aunt Pam)
