

Kent Foster

January 18, 2016

Mr. Foster was born December 5, 1961 in Toledo, Ohio. He was a 1981 graduate of Rogers High School and he earned a B.S. in Business degree from San Francisco State University, California where he was recognized as a standout student athlete on the football team. He LOVED football. He was most recently employed at Victory Honda of Monroe, Michigan. He was well respected by all who knew him. His mantra for both his lifestyle and professional career was about building and maintaining long-term relationships.

Eternally, he will always be remembered for his unrelenting determination, and extraordinary emotional strength. Kent distinguished himself by upholding his positive, unbelievable humility and inspiring attitude. As believers we should rejoice that we have the Holy Spirit to help us with determination and strength to continue our walk of faith.

Kent is preceded in death by his father, Abraham Toyer and three brothers; Darryl Foster, Abraham Toyer and John Toyer. He is survived by his mother, Maggie (William) Parker of Toledo: one son, Kent (Cierra) Foster in California; one daughter, Charese Foster; one grandson, Caden Foster; eight brothers: Abraham (Dorothy) Edward; Joe (Ann) Toyer, Steven (Rose Mary) Moore, Christopher Foster, J. Tony (Theresa) Foster, James Foster, Tony (Bridgett) Jones, and Chris Jones; seven sisters: Rose Toyer, Gloria Toyer, Eva Randles, Margret Toyer, Jennifer Bembry, Debra Toyer, and Deatra Jones; sibling cousins: Todd and Sherry Foster, Chris Foster-Sanders, and grandparents: Robert (Elmira) Martin; and an exceptionally large number of close family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully requests donations to The Kent Foster Scholarship Fund established for his young daughter, Charese Foster. Donations may be made at any 5/3 Bank in the U.S.A.
