

Lenora Williams

July 10, 1933 - December 14, 2023

Lenora "Lee" Williams was born July 10, 1933, to the late Joe "Hoss" Williams Sr. and Lue Dora Woodward Williams in Stovall (Meriwether County) Georgia and passed away on December 14, 2023, at the Henderson House Assisted Living. Lenora was the youngest of 11 children, she was raised by her sister and brother-in-law Rowena and William Crowder, after the death of her mother.

Lenora Williams formative years of her education started at Stovall School where she graduated with honors, and after graduation she traveled to Chattanooga, Tenn where she became a certified beautician. During her years in Chattanooga, she met and married her soulmate Clarence Edmund Williams on August 3, 1963. In the late 1960's Clarence and Lenora relocated to Toledo, Ohio and began a new adventure for over 36 years. Lenora retired from The University of Toledo Medical Center, formally known as Medical College of Ohio.

Lenora was grounded in her faith. Lenora began her journey with Christ joining Arbor Chapel United Methodist Church at an early age. After relocating from Tenn to Toledo, OH, she continued her Christian journey becoming a member of United Missionary Baptist Church (Pastor Bass). Lenora received formal training from the National United Church Ushers Association of America, serving as an usher and a deaconess.

Lenora was preceded in death by her husband Clarence Williams, son Oliver (Sonny) Williams, siblings Henry Williams, Jr., Mathew "Max" Williams, Julia Mae Copland, Rowena Crowder, Render "Long Boy" Williams, Carrie Nell Parks, Joe Williams Jr., Oliver Andrew Williams (Pry), Olen "Babe" Williams and Clarence "Bro" Williams.

Lenora leaves to cherish her memories Jacqueline Dian Dyal (sister/niece), Joe Elliott Crowder (brother/nephew), daughter Deborah Williams, grandson Dustin Williams, and grandson Lance Walton.

Lenora received assistance from numerous family members, especially from Tyrone Tyson, Floella (Alonzo) Wormely and Darlene Rose.

Special thanks to Mary Martha Assisted Living (Cassie and Mercede) and JoAnn and Richard of Elara Caring Hospice Care, for the great care of Lenora Williams.
