Lisa Monette Boyd, 61, who was born on August 4, 1961, peacefully passed this life after a long illness on Sept. 5, 2022, while she was surrounded by her family.

Ms. Boyd worked in computer technology for several corporations, including at Owens-Illinois, the Los Angeles city hall, and at banks in Los Angeles and in Toledo. She especially enjoyed dismantling and rebuilding computers at home.

For several years, she lived in Los Angeles where she enjoyed the desert mountains and also the palm trees. A fan of western classic TV shows and music, Ms. Boyd loved wearing cowboy hats and boots. She was preceded in death by her parents, Sylvia Cabine Boyd and Henry J. Boyd, and sister, Vivian Boyd.

(Francine) Boyd, Jr., Toledo, and Dennis (Shelly) Boyd, Columbus; seven grandchildren, and many other relatives, including nieces and nephews, and friends.
