

Lucille McClain

January 17, 1931 - February 5, 2025

Lucille McClain was born, Lucille Brown to John Lee Brown and Emma Hughes on January 17, 1931, in Clarksdale, Mississippi. Her parents moved to Greenwood, Mississippi soon after her birth, where she spent most of her adolescent life. Her parents would soon migrate to the Chicago, Illinois' Bronzeville neighborhood. Then eventually the west side of Chicago.

Lucille confessed her life to Christ at an early age in Mississippi. She would join Sunrise Church in Chicago along with her mother and eventually making Commonwealth her home church until her passing.

Lucille was married to Frank McClain who preceded her in death. Lucille worked for Super Z Grocery Store for over 40 years where she watched many kids grow up and have kids of their own, becoming a mother figure to many.

Lucille had six children Joyce, who preceded her in death, Kelvin, Marcus (Thais), Frankie, Leola who preceded her in death, and Emma (Marvin). Eight grandchildren Marcus Jr., Rodney, Kevin, Alexis, Karmen, Ashley, Derrick and Mia. Six great grandchildren, Kevin Jr. Skylar, Dean, King, Charlotte, and Ky'aire.

Lucille had one sibling Felix Anderson Sr. (Callie) who preceded her in death. Her brother had five children Michale, Alonzo, Felita, Felix Jr, Yolanda, and Mark. Lucille and her brother lived together with their families for many years raising their children together, a bond that made the children all feel like siblings instead of cousins.

Lucille loved the west side of Chicago; she spent most of her Chicago life living in the K-town community. A community that loved her just as much as she loved them. A community that cared, protected, and took care of her. Lucille shared a special bond and lifelong friendship with Augusta Tolliver affectionately known as “Gussie” whom she worked with at Super Z Grocery Store, and Gerldean Edwards affectionately known as “Dean.”

Lucille leaves to cherish her memories: Her children, Kelvin, Marcus, Frankie, and Emma. Her sister Callie (Felix Sr.) Eight grandkids, six great grandkids, A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and her beloved K-town community.
