“ Our prayers go out to the family, we would like to express our condolences at this time to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement at times like this, the scripture I would like to share is at Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ My condolences to the Jackson Family. To loose a loved one in death is never easy and death is an enemy that leaves a heart of pain and emptiness. However the Almighty God made provisions to undo the suffering, sickness, pains and to do away with death forever. Jesus Christ showed his power, care and love for mankind when he was on the earth. Very soon the fulfillment of God's word will be realized, and all those asleep in death will be awoken to a life of perfect peace on a perfect paradise earth(John 5:28&29- those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his son Jesus and come out; Isaiah 25:8 - Jehovah God will swallow up death forever; Psalms 37:10,11&29- the meek and righteous one will possess the earth and live forever upon it). I hope these scriptures and wonderful promise from God brings you much comfort during this difficult time. Revelation 21:4-Gods promise that death will soon be no more.

“ Rosie, on behalf of the family of the Late Odis J. Williams, Sr., our sincere condolences on the loss of your Mother, Lula Mae Jackson. A stylish dresser, I recall her many visits to our home in Detroit, in route to purchasing shoes in Downtown Detroit. Always a lady, exuding confidence and class, I remember her calming demeanor, and my Dad's undying love and respect for her. May God, the Comforter, bless and keep you all as you grieve your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. "Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted." (Matthew 5:4) P.S. I love Aunt Lula Mae's hair in the picture. And, in case you don't remember me, I'm Odis & Verlean's second eldest daughter.

“ Laurine, The loss of someone close is difficult to bear, but the sorrow that you feel is a sorrow that we share, so may it comfort you to know how very much we care. Our heart goes out to you and your family today, more than anything, we wish we could make things easier for you. We do pray continuously for god to give you strength, and know that in time he will. In the meantime, remember that we are here for you;, even more importantly, God is too. You BFF, Mabel Smith
