

Mable Elois Gray

November 24, 1943 - July 19, 2024

Mable Elois (Lee) Gray born to Roosevelt and Agnes Lee on November 24, 1943 in Newllton, Louisiana, and passed away on July 19, 2024 at Genacross Lutheran Services-Wolf Creek. The Lee family relocated to Toledo, Ohio in 1945. Mable was the 3rd born of 9 Lee children (Hazel, Charles, Otha, Effie, Essie, Willie, James, Mildred). Mable attended Jesup W. Scott High School and graduated in 1961. To say she was a proud Bulldog is an understatement; she wore her burgundy and white proudly and with boldness.

Mable met and married Clifton Z Gray (Sonny), and they had 4 children, Kelley K. Gray-Smith (Clifford), Kim N. (Gray) Wilcox, Keely M. Gray and their only son Clifton Lance Gray. Mable was a very proud mother and had a uniquely different loving relationship with each one of her children. Mable attended Macedonia Baptist Church, where she served as a nurse's aide, a Sunday school teacher in children's ministry and the usher Board. Mable was a past Worthy Matron of OES Ruth Chapter #6, Toledo, Ohio.

Mable never met a stranger and even if she did, she knew the strangers' mother, brother, aunt, or some other relative. She really enjoyed serving God and taking care of others. She worked for the Toledo Health Department for 10 years as a School Nurse, and she was lovingly called "Mrs. Gray the Nurse" even to this day. She worked for TARTA as a Bus Driver for 14 years, retiring in 1991. She had a daycare and later enjoyed working with seniors as a home health care provider.

Mable leaves her beloved children, 5 granddaughters, JaShayla T Smith (Chris), Keyonna, Gray, Brittany-Anne Gray, Brenda Gray, and Kyle Gray, 7 great grand-children, John Robert Pilkington, Kasey Grant, Keyon Grant, Khari T. Chambers, Greyson Zane Gray, Logan Olivia Gray, and Amari Alexandria Lee-Landrum, 3 siblings, countless nieces and nephews, cousins and dear friends.
