“ To the Family of Maggie Woodson,
So sorry to learn about the loss of your Dear Loved One, Maggie.
Please know that so many people share your grief with you to help you through this difficult time of sorrow. Please accept my deepest condolences as we await the time when Christ Jesus will awaken all of those who have fallen asleep in death; including your Beloved, Maggie.

“ May God be the Glory
In this world we live and we die. God in his abundant love has called one of his Children ohome to be in the land of the living, for we do know that to be absent from the body is to be present with the lord. and we The Generation of Rudolph Boykin want you to know that we do share your grief and sorrow. So Family, please keep your hands in God's hand and trust in him for guidance, and everything will be alright. We love you and keep in touch.

The first time I met Maggie, she welcomed me with open arms and a kiss. She did that every time we met. She was a sweet, precious soul who is now in Glory Land with Our Lord. Oh what a joy that will be. Condolences to the family and we shall all met up with her again.
