

Mamie Calhoun

September 27, 2007

Mamie J. Calhoun, after 70 precious years, joined the angels in heaven on Thursday, September 27, 2007 surrounded by the love of family and friends.

She was born to the union of Samuel Hicks, Sr., and Lelia Hicks on May 18, 1937. Mamie being a native of Switchback, West Virginia, relocated to Ohio more than forty years ago. After completing business and nursing school, she worked at St. Vincent's Hospital as an LPN and Hemodialysis Technician before entering private duty work for many years. She returned to work at Medical University of Ohio, retiring in 2006 from the Department of Environmental Services.

Mamie was a giver of life in every aspect. She loved writing, reading, and spending time loving and nurturing those in her every day contact. As part of her loving kindness, she cherished each day that she served as a greeter and welcome host at Cornerstone Church, where she truly served as an extension of her pastor's heart of hospitality.

Mamie leaves to cherish her memory Lee Roy Clay; devoted daughter Teresa Moore, Step Daughter Monica Quinney (Richard); brother; Sam Hicks, Jr. (Beverly) of Youngstown, New York; sisters: Aileen Easley of Bronx, New York; Barbara Price of Northfork, West Virginia; Gloria Hicks of Bronx, New York; Sandra Hinton (Michael) of Whitehall, PA, two grand daughters, a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives, and her extended Cornerstone Church family whom she loved very much.

Visitation will be Sunday, September 30, 2007, from 2:00 pm until 5:00 pm at Dale-Riggs Funeral Home Chapel. Wake services Monday, October 1, 10:00 a.m, followed by home-going services at 11:00, officiated by Pastor David Banks at Cornerstone Church; Interment immediately following at Ottawa Hills Memorial Park. The family wishes to thank the office staff of Northwest Family Physicians, Toledo Hospital's 8 South Staff, and finally, the loving staff at Kingston Care Center of Sylvania. www.dalefh.com
