“ Dear Families,

We are extending heartfelt sympathies to you all during the loss of a dear love one here on earth but know that God got her and what qualities she left behind in your heart of hearts will sustain you now and in the days and years to come. She was such a lady and being in her presence was a nice feeling. I knew her many years through church activities and she will surely be missed. May God give each of you what you need as you prepare for her home-going service. I cannot personally be there because of my on-going illness but I will be with you all in spirit.
