“ Dear Brown Family and Friends, I wasn't privileged with the remarkable acquaintance of Mrs. Brown as you were, but it saddens me to read of your loss. Please accept my family's sincere condolences. Many are comforted in knowing that our Creator assures us in the Bible that soon death and mourning will be no more. May you have peace.

And may Jesus, our Jehovah-God, bless you all during this time. Know that He walked the earth in our shoes and experienced everything that we go through on earth, and He sympathizes with us. Take hope from scripture that "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord".

“ I am very sorry to hear of Naomi's death. I worked with Naomi at NCBA for many years and we use to sit and talk about many things. She was a very sweet and kind person. Naomi was very proud of her family and her writing accomplishments. Please extend my condolences and sympathy to the family. Norma Fletcher
