“ Paul was like my big brother when I was living in Toledo, you talking about a man who keep a good honest hustle he would get up go to work for the city then get off that job and me and him would jump into his pickup truck and go clean out flooded basement, haul junk and scrap. To who that don't know we need more men like him in today society he kept me working to keep me out of trouble off the streets, and for that I give him the utmost respect. If it wasn't for him, I wouldn't be the person I am today. He was a part of my life gave me a place to say when I needed it. You will be missed and to the family you have my deepest condolences.Until we meet again my firend, God Bless

“ My brother Paul walked me down the aisle at my wedding. Gone but not forgotten. I'm Paul's little sister.
