

Pearline Taylor

November 21, 2008

Pearline "Red" Taylor 80, passed away in Indianapolis, IN on Friday November 21, 2008 surrounded by loved ones. Pearline was born in Grenada, MS and moved to Toledo, OH as a young teen where she attended Scott High School.

She married George Taylor Sr. and together raised their three children.

Pearline was a member of Gesu Parish. She retired from Pepsi/RKO Bottling. Pearline moved to Indianapolis in her later years to enjoy the comforting home of her daughter and son in law, Jon and Aleyne Wood. A devoted mother and grandmother, she was preceded in death by her husband, parents, Rupert and Annie Lee Self, and her grandson, Gregory Taylor.

She is survived by children, George (Lori) Taylor Jr., Edith Campbell, Aleyne (Jon) Wood both of Indianapolis, IN, grandchildren, Christian Wood, Eric and Anthony Taylor, Rodney, Kristen and Evan Campbell, sister, Albertha Knox as well as many loving relatives and close friends too numerous to mention.

Friends are invited to visit Friday November 28, 2008 from 4-8p.m. at Dale-Riggs Funeral Home Chapel. Funeral Service will be Saturday November 29, 2008 at 10a.m. at Gesu Catholic Church. Father James Cryan celebrant burial at Resurrection Cemetery. www.dalefh.com

The family wishes to thank St. Vincent's Hospice (Indianapolis) for their special care.