

Robert Lewis Jackson

November 25, 1935 - October 12, 2024

Robert Lewis Jackson, age 88, transitioned this life on Saturday, October 12, 2024.

Robert was born November 25, 1935, in Clarksville, Tennessee to Clare L. Jackson and Lewis Fauntleroy.

Robert was a life long resident of Toledo, Ohio, and attended Jesup W. Scott High School.

Robert, a Korean War Veteran, proudly served in the United States Air Force as a Private Airman from 1951-1954. Subsequent to Robert's honorable discharge from the United States Air Force, he was employed at Unicast for several years, prior to working 30 years as a construction worker for the Local 500

Union Hall until his retirement. He also enjoyed working as an Assistant Financial Secretary for the Local 500 Union Hall. Robert was a loyal member of the Holiness Temple for 25 years, and served as a devoted Deacon under the Ministry of Pastor Ronald Brown.

Robert was an avid sports fan, with the Cleveland Browns being his favorite team. He enjoyed bowling, western movies, casino trips, playing bid whist, and spending time with his family. Robert was a super sharp dresser and loved to strut around in his leather & three-piece suits, with matching hat and shoes.

Robert was preceded in death by his mother Clare L. Jackson, father Lewis Fauntleroy, sister Margarite Thompson, brother Ronald Dickerson, and brother Linden King.

Robert leaves to cherish his memory his children, Robert S. Jackson, and Robin L. Johnson (Larry); siblings, Verna Smith, Pat Dickerson, and Charles Overton; 8 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; step-children Jodi Depp, Helen Brown, Judith Temple, Nina Beckford and Karen Casey; special great grandson Corvez Adger, and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins, associates and friends.
