

Robert Anderson Sherley Jr.

March 25, 2020

Robert Anderson Sherley, Jr. was born to his parents Robert and Sandra Sherley, Sr. on April 20, 1971, in Detroit Michigan. Robert was born on his mother's birthday and was baptized at Elyton Missionary Baptist Church under the tutelage of Pastor John D. Kelly. Robert was a gifted singer and sung in the youth choir while he was at Elyton M.B.C. Robert was educated in the Detroit Public schools, in Detroit Michigan, and Oldham County public schools, in LaGrange Kentucky. Robert loved to serve through his gift of cooking. He was employed at Joann's Barbeque and Floods Bar and Grill. He helped anyone who had to cook for a large gatherings or family get-togethers. However, Robert's real passion was Home Health Care. His love and compassion for the Elderly was remarkable, he was trustworthy, dependable and displayed exceptional care of his clients. Robert's love flowed over to the sick and disabled as well. Robert had a dynamic personality and enjoyed life, he was the dearest of friend, and brought a smile to the face of all he encountered.

Robert leaves to cherish his memory, his mother Sandra Sherley, siblings, Dianne Clark (KenNeith), Darryl Sherley (Lucinda), John Sherley, Yvonne McGee, Rhonda Trice, Ronell Trice, Robert Trice, Renee Sherley, and Umeka Allen, his great-aunt Anna Brown, and great-uncle Charles Crockett, four aunts, Betty Allen, Sheria Johnson, Dorene Martin, and Elizabeth Slaughter (Fred), two uncles, Lamar Swanson, and Donald Sherley (Patricia), and a host of nieces and nephews. Robert leaves to cherish his memory three special cousins, Peet Parrish, Marquise Weaver and Tannischa McCallum, best friend for life Felicia Lyte, life-long friend Reginald Moore, and a special lady, the love of his life, Momma Quinn.
