

Rogers Emmett McGee

January 4, 1970 - June 7, 2024

Rogers McGee was born on January 4, 1970 to Rogers McGee and Barbara McGee in Toledo, OH, and passed away on June 7, 2024 in Stockbridge, GA (near Atlanta) at the age of 54. He went to St. Jude School and graduated from Rogers High School. After high school, he relocated to Atlanta, GA where he worked for Coca Cola for many years until his health failed.

Rogers was a Godly kid who grew up in the church at an early age as an altar boy at St. Jude Catholic Church. Anytime you saw Rogers he was happy to see you with that big smile on his face.

While living in Atlanta and working for Coca Cola, his friends nicknamed him Coke. He always wore those Coca Cola shirts even on his day off. He was very well liked by everyone, even if you just met him.

Rogers had a heart of gold and much love and respect for his parents and from family.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents Clifton and Essie Mae Williams, and Ezra and Lula McGee, sister Kimbely McGee Pfitzer, and many aunts and uncles.

He is survived by his parents, sister Tamra (Derrick) Owens of Goodyear, AZ, Rogina Carter and brother Brian McGee of Atlanta, GA, special friends Paula Johnson, Aceleio Allwind, Bryant Jackson, Mike Webb and Ahmed Minor all from Atlanta, GA, and other relatives and friends.

He will be missed more than words can say.

“ McGee as he is affectionately known @the yellow mansion was a funny and fun loving man.He was a very dear friend to me and A&E. We loved game night and karaoke. McGee was a foodie so we explored every new restaurant and hold in the wall. If I had to give one word to describe McGee.. I couldn't because one word wouldn't explain my McGee...Rest easy my friend
