

Sarah Frazier

February 6, 2011

Sarah Bell Frazier was born in Shelby, Mississippi on March 27, 1925 to the union of Elie Warfield and Annie Bell Jackson. She was the youngest of five children. She is preceded in death by her parents and siblings.

Sarah and her family later moved to Hughes, Arkansas where accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age under the leadership of Rev. Jones of St. Mary Baptist Church.

Sarah later moved to Chicago, Illinois. On December 20, 1963, she was united in holy matrimony to James Levell Frazier at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Chicago, Illinois.

A short time later, Sarah and James moved to Toledo, Ohio. In 1965, they joined Calvary Baptist Church, where she became a faithful and diligent servant on the Mother's Board, Communion Committee, Devotion Committee, Convalescent Committee, Cooking Committee, and as a Chaplain Officer. Sarah had a special gift in forming spiritual bonds with all people, especially children. Her presence and gentle voice showed God's love. Sarah was also a talented Cook. She loved cooking for her husband, family, friends and Church.

James preceded Sarah in death in January of 2005.

Sarah was summoned from this earthly life by our All Wise Heavenly Father on Sunday, February 6, 2011 at 10:50 p.m. at her home.

Sarah leaves to cherish her memories, a brother-in-law, Otis Frazier of St. Louis, MO; two nephews: Michael Smith (Marsha) of Baraboo, WI, and Henry

Allen of Chicago, IL; three nieces: Lillie Mae Smith of Chicago, IL, Sandra Smith of Glendale Heights, IL, and Lorraine Allen of Chicago, IL; a special great-niece who took care of her in ladder years, Kimberly Griffin (Carl) of Bellwood, IL; and a host of great nephews and nieces, other relatives and friends.
