“ Mrs. Wofford I am so sorry for your lost I couldn't even begin to know how it feels to loose a child let alone two. But I know God has made you strong and is taking great care of you. Wish I could have there with you at your time of bereavement, but God knows my heart. I haven't seen you since I stopped doing your taxes and listening to Woody with his jokes and laughter filling up the office at H&R Block Love you always

“ I'm from the Waite Class of 72. Sharon was real spunky for such a little lady. Back in 2004 my son started working at Sears with her. He always felt so bad about her walking to and from work, but no matter hard he tried, she wouldn't take a ride with him.
