“ To my second mom Mrs. Ellis, I'm definitely going to miss you. You were always so full of life and smiles when I would come home to visit. Thank you so much for embracing me like a daughter. Thank you for the continued support and encouraging words when I moved to Georgia. Mrs. Ellis was a beautiful spirit that touched a lot of people. She loved everybody. On a lighter note, I remember one weekend back in our hay day(laughing) Teri and I were about to go to the club and mom saw our outfits and baby did she have some words for us(crying and laughing). It was all in fun, but we knew she was serious.(smiles)

Mother Ellis I know you are in heaven looking down upon us, but I just wanted to let you know that I did beat my breast cancer. I promise to keep to fighting just like you did. (crying) Sending you love and hugs!

Heavenly Father, I pray for strength and peace for my dear friend Teri, her kids Jessica and Chandler, niece Courtney, her cousin Frankie and even her brother. We are family and I love you all!

To Teri: Thank you for sharing your mom with me.

“ There is no way to measure the full impact that a loved one has had on the people whose lives she touched throughout the years of her life. May your memories and the memories of others, shared with you over the coming days and weeks and years, give you pause, comfort, and smiles. Those of us who have been where you are today share our love with you.
