Our precious Jewel, Tiara Tonyce Moore was born on August 7, 1981, at Toledo Hospital in Toledo, Ohio, to Gwendolyn D. Moore and Anthony C. Browne. On December 26, 2025, Tiara got her wings and went home to be with the Lord.

Known as the life of the party, Tiara had a special way of lighting up any room she entered. Her beautiful smile, joyful spirit, and loving heart made everyone feel welcome. If Tiara sensed you were hungry, you were never leaving with an empty belly, feeding others was one of her greatest acts of love. She truly showed her care through her cooking.

Tiara loved life and found joy in every moment. She loved listening to music, traveling, and creating unforgettable memories with those she loved. She was the ultimate concert and travel buddy, always ready for fun and adventure. Tiara loved all holidays, especially Christmas, a fitting reflection of her bright and giving spirit. One of her favorite memories was a graduation trip to Hawaii with her Godmother, a trip she treasured deeply.

She was a proud 1999 graduate of Notre Dame Academy in Toledo, Ohio, where she participated in several clubs, including Afro History and the SJJ

Flag Corps. Her passion for involvement and community followed her throughout her life. Tiara also played the piano for eight years, a talent that reflected her love of music and creativity.

Tiara grew up at Phillips Temple CME Church, where her faith was nurtured and lifelong friendships were formed, which included Valerie Thompson and Tiffany Dunlap. She was actively involved in church life, participating in the choir, ushers, and serving as a praise dancer sharing her gifts and love for the Lord. Tiara loved people deeply, especially her children. She always made sure those around her were enjoying themselves. She had a heart for bringing others together and lived life to the fullest. If you shared at least one inside joke with Tiara, you knew without question that she loved you. Laughter was her love language. Throughout her life, Tiara was employed at various places throughout the city, where she was known for her warm spirit and ability to connect with others.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Verna Moore and George O. Moore Sr., and her special uncle, Darryl Moore.

Tiara leaves to cherish her memory her parents, Gwendolyn Moore-Browne and Anthony Browne; grandmother; Joyce "Grandy" Jones, her sister, Akila Browne; her brothers, Michael (JimJim) Moore and Antoine (Britney) Moore of Monroe, NC; her beloved children, Ethan and Dionna Ramsey, Isabella Watson, and Avery'onna Moore; her special aunt, Sheryl Moore; her special uncle, Errol Moore of Columbus, OH; her Godmother, Roberta Whitaker of Jackson, MS, and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and loved ones.

Though she is no longer with us, Tiara's love, laughter, and radiant unconventional spirit will live on forever in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Rest easy Percy!
