“ Big Brother, I love you to the moon and back. My heart hurts so bad right now. I am going to miss your visits in Orlando. You were supposed to be here March 14th. I told you I loved you the day you passed away; but I wish I would have said it 20 millions times. You will always be my Big Brother forever and a day. I know Ann was so happy to see you. I seen her arms extend out when you left. I thank you loving on my family and spending time with us. Carlos is going to miss his Hype Man: but I know you will be hyping him up from afar. I am proud of you Big Bro. No one is perfect but God. You can rest in peace now. Love, your Baby Sis Maggie ❤️
