

Wanda Irving

April 25, 2008

Wanda E. Irving 99, passed away April 25, 2008 at Woodhaven Health and Rehab Center in Bowling Green, OH. Born in Stotesbury, W. VA, she graduated from Douglass High School in Huntington, W.VA in 1927. She lived the majority of her life in Washington, DC coming to Bowling Green in 1996. She worked for the U.S. Treasury Department. After her exposure to numerous cultural experiences in Washington, Wanda became interested in classical music. To pursue a possible career in opera, she studied French, Russian, German and Italian and worked with various vocal coaches. Because of her musical talent, she was an invited guest to the concert performed in Constitution Hall by Marion Anderson. Wanda was a Washington Redskins Fan and was unbeatable in Chinese Checkers. She was preceded in death by her mother Ella Davis, stepfather Rev. Sandy Davis, Brother Melvin Davis and Sister Flora Stone. She leaves to cherish her memory nephew Dr. Winifred (Marva) Stone of Bowling Green, OH, nieces, Freeda Stone of Los Angeles, CA, Rita Carlisle of San Diego, CA and numerous nieces, nephews other relatives and friends. Visitation will be Wednesday 6 – 8 p.m. wake services Thursday 10:00 a.m. followed by funeral services at 11:00 a.m. Dale-Riggs Funeral Home Chapel, Rev. Dr. Langston C. Bannister officiant, interment Historic Woodlawn Cemetery. www.dalefh.com