

Wilson K. Colbert

April 19, 2014 - November 3, 2022

Wilson Kenneth Colbert, aka PaPa a loving light was born April 19, 2014 and passed unexpectedly and peacefully on November 3, 2022. Wilson Kenneth Colbert attended TPS Virtual Academy. He was in the 3rd grade. Wilson was an exceptional student (always on honor roll and recently the principal list) and friend. He will deeply be missed. Wilson's kindness and love will never be forgotten.

Wilson (wisdom, infectious smile - energy, loving, strong, obedient, noble). Although a boy, Wilson was a great man, a gentleman. At age 8 years old Wilson stood just shy of 5ft tall, always joking with his mommy that I was really a kid. Wilson loved, respected, looked up to and cherished his sweet father, and vice versa. The love between the two is unmatched. Wilson has a lil sister who's his best friend for life, Ms. Rubi. Oh Rubi how Wilson adored you, and you he. He was our protector and took every good care of us, always. Wilson had many hopes and dreams. He loved nature just us sitting listening to the rain. He loved basketball, Jason (Friday the 13th), Sharks, GTA, Call of Duty, his guns, riding his bike and music. He aspired to be an astronaut, teacher and NBA player. Wilson was fun, happy and full of life.

Wilson will be deeply missed by his father Rethan R. Colbert, mother Tabitha L. Colbert, sister Rubi R. Colbert, grandmothers Robin Clarke and Tracey

Hester, grandfather Kenneth Guynes, great grandmother Vernetta Clarke, aunts Reesha Davis, Dyondra Guynes, Jada Wilson and uncle Rico Hester, and a whole family of aunts, uncles and cousins who love you near and far. Baby, Mommy, Daddy and Rubi will love you always.
